Dear Mr. Burnham;

The Upper Colorado River Commission staff forwarded your August 5, 2004 letter regarding the proposed Navajo-Gallup Water Supply Project to this office for response.

The Upper Colorado River Commission at its June 19, 2003 meeting adopted a resolution regarding the use and accounting of Upper Basin water supplied to the Lower Basin in New Mexico by the proposed Navajo-Gallup Water Supply Project. A copy of the resolution is enclosed for you information.

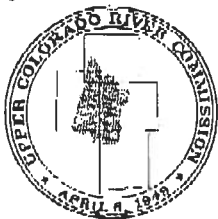

The other item in your letter concerning transportation of water from New Mexico for use in Arizona is covered by Article IX of the Upper Colorado River Basin Compact and a copy of Article IX also is enclosed.

Let me know if more information would be useful.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Philip B. Mutz".

Philip B. Mutz
Upper Colorado River Commissioner

Dear Mr. Burnham:

I am writing in response to your letter of August 5th. The Upper Colorado River Commission, its advisers and staff have been fully briefed about the Navajo-Gallup Water Supply Project by Philip B. Mutz, Commissioner for the State of New Mexico. I have forwarded your letter to Commissioner Mutz for a response.

Very truly yours,

for

Don A. Ostler, P.E.
Executive Director
